520 Cohasset Rd., Suite 140, Chico, CA 95926

Street Address: Same

Days/Hours: Monday through Friday, 8:00 a.m. to 5:00 p.m.

Services: CDSS is a public adoption agency that facilitates the adoption of children who need permanent homes by providing direct Agency and Independent services through six regional offices. All six offices provide Independent and Agency adoption services. The CDSS provides Agency services for 17 counties in California. The services focus exclusively on the placement of court dependent children, the majority of whom have special needs. . In an "Agency Adoption" , the child is placed for adoption by the CDSS or licensed county or private adoption agency. A birth parent's parental rights are terminated either by court action or voluntarily relinquishing their parental rights. The adoption agency is responsible for the adoptive planning of the child until the completion of the adoption.

The Chico District Office conducts Independent adoption investigations and Agency adoption services in the Plumas County service area.

The Chico District Office conducts home studies in search of appropriate adoptive families in the Plumas service area.
